

YORKVILLE HIGH SCHOOL
Yorkville, Illinois

Foreword

Between the covers of this book, we map out the course of our year's work. To be a log in which to preserve your memories of the eventful voyage is the purpose of this annual.

We wish to express our deep appreciation to those who helped to make our annual possible, especially to Mrs. Henning who served so efficiently as faculty advisor.

Administration

Mr. Talbott, superintendent of our high school, received his M. S. degree from the University of Illinois. During his eight years at Y. H. S., he has made an ever increasing number of friends by his faithful service.

In the past few years the high school board has approved the purchase of a new athletic field and every year has hired a fine staff of teachers. The entire community has grown to appreciate their work.

Ye Olde History

Forty three bewildered freshmen drifted through the halls in 1950. As we look back at the course of our long journey we are reminded of hard but happy days. With Frank as our captain we started into the whirl of high school life.

November fourth we came to school in our Sunday best and struggled through our freshman tea. As if this wasn't enough, on November 23rd., we were dressed in gay regalia attempting to avoid the "I praise thee oh high and mighty upperclassmen. Allah! Allah!" You guessed it! -- Initiation! We had our first class party and took part in the magazine campaign. At the close of the year, one of our classmates, Ruth Falasky, was elected as cheerleader.

By the time our Sophomore year tolled around we were just a little more at ease and ready to voice our opinions now and then. Our activities were still few. Two girls were elected from our class as cheerleaders, Judy Halberstadt and Ruby Greene. Our class president this year was Dave Walker.

Early in our Junior year with Kerin Kyes as our president we proudly picked out our class rings and just couldn't wait until they finally arrived. Another of the high lights of this year was our production "Clementine." After the play we enjoyed a fun-packed party at Little Jacks. Always to be remembered is the treasured night of the prom. We worked hard and long on our theme "The Pearly Gates" but felt that it was worth it. By the time we had begun racking our brains out trying to think of ways to increase our treasury the year had ended.

Then finally our far away dreams came true. We're Seniors! With Alan Thanepohn as our leader we began trying desperately to make money for our Senior Trip. We sponsored bake sales, our play "Goodnite Ladies," and had different concessions. In May we, as honored guests, enjoyed the Junior - Senior Banquet. Before we knew it Senior Class Night and Baccalaureate had slipped by. After our search of four years for the treasure we were well awarded by -- Graduation.

It is said that all good things must come to an end so the class of 1953 says "Farewell" to T.H.S.

Prophecy

Monday, June 1st.---Our wind and storm ridden pirate ship "Y.H.S." ran aground at our home town of Yorkville situated on the Fox River. Upon embarking we discovered Laverne Gjerde, fishpole in hand, leaning against the soft, grassy embankment. He was taking life easy, not caring whether the fish took his bait of not.

My mate's sharp eye discovered a billboard advertising Dean Henricksen and John Burks' newest production "The Greatest Show on Earth" starring Gordie Seibert, daring snake charmer.

My weary crew being very thirsty from our long journey headed for the nearby drugstore. Opening the door we came face to face with Dean Batson, wearing a pair of patched overalls and an old straw hat. He said he was farming in his favorite state Missouri. He had just been shopping at Harris' Nylon Shoppe where Eleanor Cornielis is employed as a model.

As darkness fell, my mate and I sought lodging at the small but prosperous hotel owned by Nan Liakakos. Bob Stanton, the bell boy, took our bags up to our rooms. In the elevator he informed us that Dave Walker is a professor at Vassar where Lydia Bekemeier is teaching modern dance. We also learned that Kay Behrens and Barbara Salfisberg are truant officers at Yale.

Tuesday June 2nd.---Upon arising on the second day of our short visit we continued our tour of the prospering town of Yorkville. The first store we entered was Barbara Olson's Busy Bakery. Barbara informed us that Marvin Causey now owned an estate in Rhode Island, obtained by the money he received from those valuable coin collections he used to keep. Dennis Fauth is now acting as Marvin's personal butler.

On our way out of the bakery I noticed the famed Kendall County Record lying on the steps so I picked it up and saw that it is edited by Anita Troutman with Lorraine Henne as her assistant. Thumbing through the pages I found that Ruth Falasky was now starring in "Life With Mother".

As we travel on further we see Hoffman's Camera Shop, Washay's Super Mart, and Dick Darling's Dairy. Feeling very weary after our days walk we returned to our hotel rooms.

Wednesday, June 3rd.---We began our days tour at Madame Fifi Fifi's Fashion Shoppe owned by Betty Ronning and Janet Cummings. Betty informed us that Albert Carlson is now head of the Sleepy Mattress Company with Judy Halbesma as his bookkeeper. As we left the shop we met Elizabeth Shick who, is an airline stewardess and has just returned from Florida in her new Buick which she purchased from Teddy Demetralis. He is now the owner of the worlds largest auto company.

Later we stopped in to see Kerin Kyes and her family to learn the latest on more of our classmates. She informed us that Reverend Ruby Greene is now preaching in Cuba, Barbara Chally is a regular member of the Red Heads Basketball team, and Charlene Borchers is the proud owner of Tiny's Tidy Tea Room.

Thursday, June 4th.---Upon rising we switched on the radio and who should we hear but Terry Rice, star comedian of W.B.S.G. Anxious to learn about the rest of our classmates we wondered over to the football field where Diane Reppy was giving her own little football team a work out. She told us that Janett Cawkins is flying an airplane between Alaska and Siam.

Now my mate and I come to our journeys end. She will return to her studio to finish a portrait of the President of the U.S.A. I, have decided to return to my prosperous 20 acre farm.

Home

On October 10th and 11th, 1952 the Student Council sponsored the fourth annual Homecoming, consisting of a snake dance, parade, football game, and alumni dance.

At approximately four o'clock on the 10th the parade made up of floats designed by the student organizations and merchants began. A feature attraction was the convertible with the five candidates for queen. The floats were judged in two classes by five prominent citizens. The prizes went to the Junior Class and Library Club from the high school while the Cub Scouts and the V.F.W. captured the prizes from the merchants section.

At six o'clock the students gathered in back of the school building where they started the snake dance by burning a dummy representing the Oswego team. The cheerleaders lead the group in a few yells and then they were off across town to the post office where everyone gathered in a circle and screamed out a few more yells. Finally a group of tired but enthused students returned to the school to await that exciting moment when the referees would start the football game.

coming

With the blowing of the whistle the Yorkville Foxes and the Oswego Panthers started the game which was a battle to the finish. Yorkville took its first defeat 13 to 7.

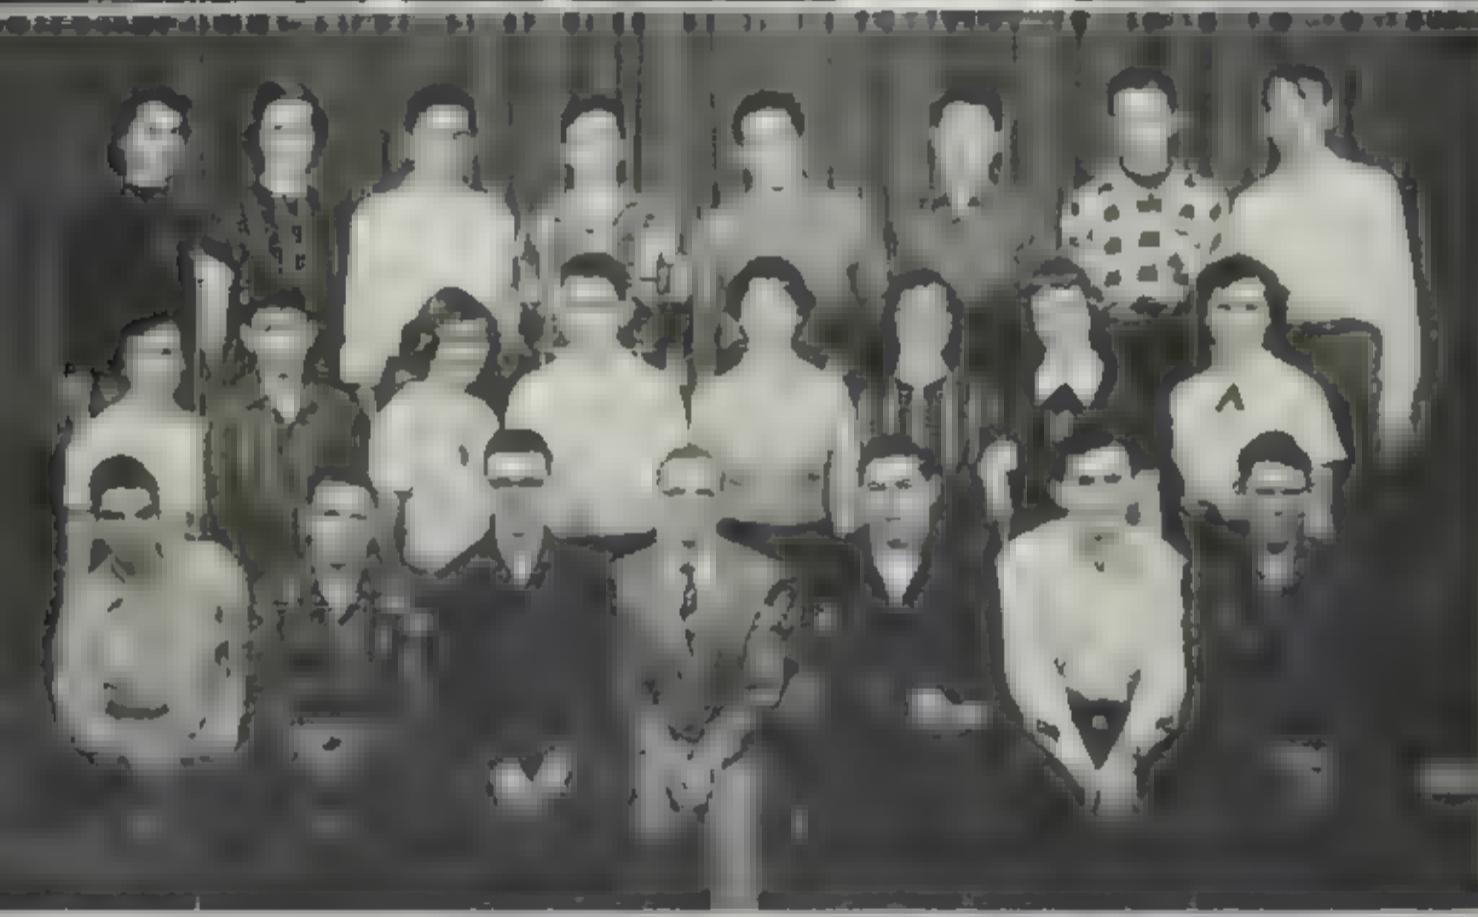

The alumni dance on Saturday night climaxed the Homecoming activities. At the stroke of ten the attendants to the king and queen who were Kern Kyes, Teddy Demetralis, Ruby Greene, Dean Henricksen, Sharon Schultz, Terry Rice, Judy Halbestma, and Frank Harris entered to the strains of "Because of You." The King Dave Walker and the Queen Ruth Falasky then followed. After a short court dance everyone danced until midnight to the wonderful music of Buddy Everett's orchestra.

The 1952 football season at Y. H. S. was one of which we could be proud. With our new coach, Wes Tregoning, at the helm, the Foxes fought their way into second place. We started off the season with a bang by winning our first three games before we were tripped up by Plainfield in a close hard fought game. The next week-end we were on the short end of the score again being defeated by Oswego. Then the Foxes bounced back with a win over Orland Park and ended the season with a victory over Plano. Fullback Dave Walker set an all time record for the conference by scoring sixty seven points in conference play.
